Evaluation Platform

The History

- 2008 – 2017: Legacy Systems
- Challenges with Clinical Evaluations
- Limited Reporting Features
- The role of QA&IE unit - Data Analysis was labor intensive
- Evaluation of Perception indicators
- Most surveys were decentralized (on-line and off-line methods).
- Generic Survey Instruments
- Engagement of Stakeholders - Managing Response Rates

Migrating to Blue

- ✓ QA&IE Role in Centralization of Evaluations & QA Process
- ✓ Enhancement in the Automation of Evaluation Process
- ✓ Stakeholder Engagement in Response Rate Management.
- ✓ Customized report generation to meet end user expectations
- ✓ Performing Gap Analysis,
- ✓ Facilitate planning & decision-making process.
- ✓ Feasibility Studies,
- ✓ Performance Enhancement,
- ✓ Program and Institutional Accreditations
